

The background is the image called background.png

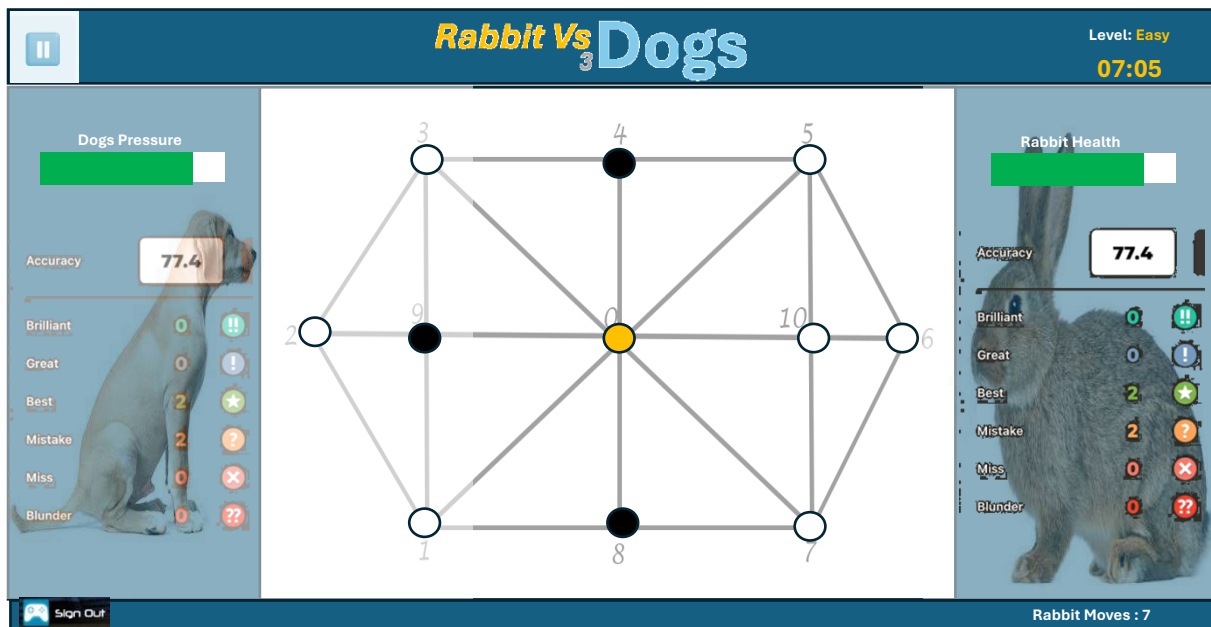

When you hit start button

- The background is the video called background.mp4

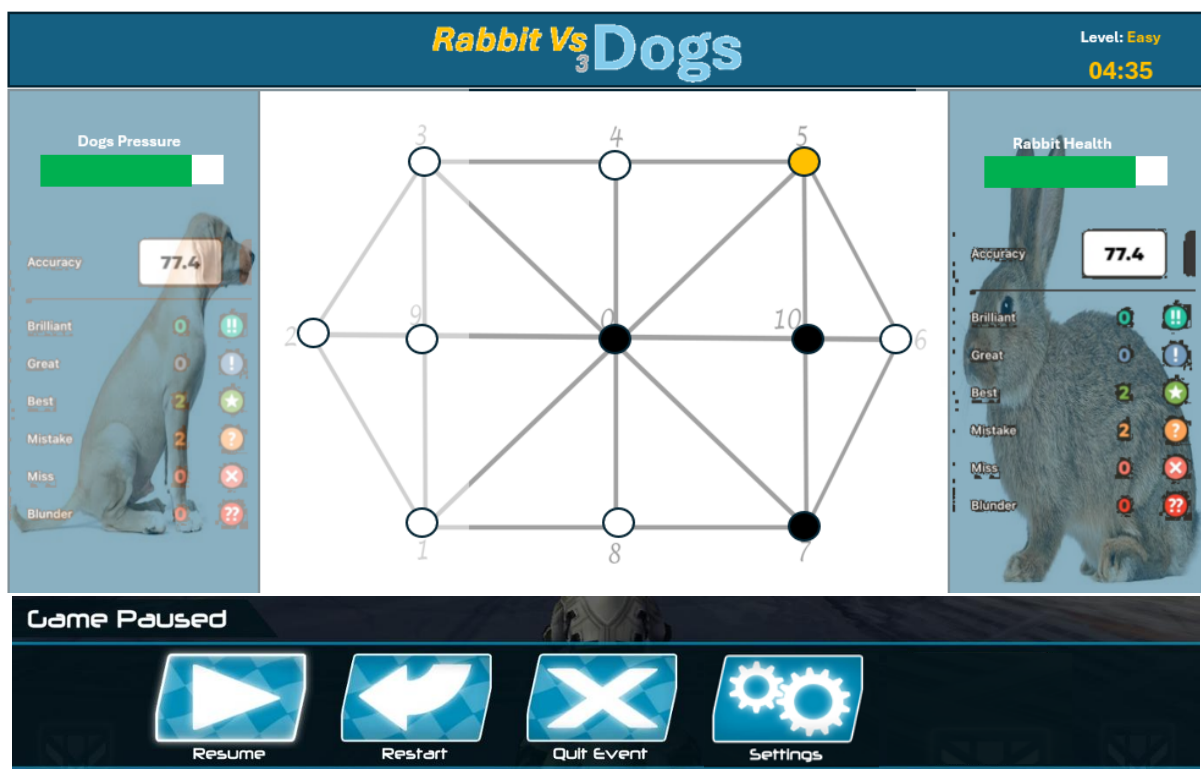

When you hit play button

- The left background is the image called settingdog.png
- The middle background is the board of the game
- The right background is the image called sittingrabbit.png

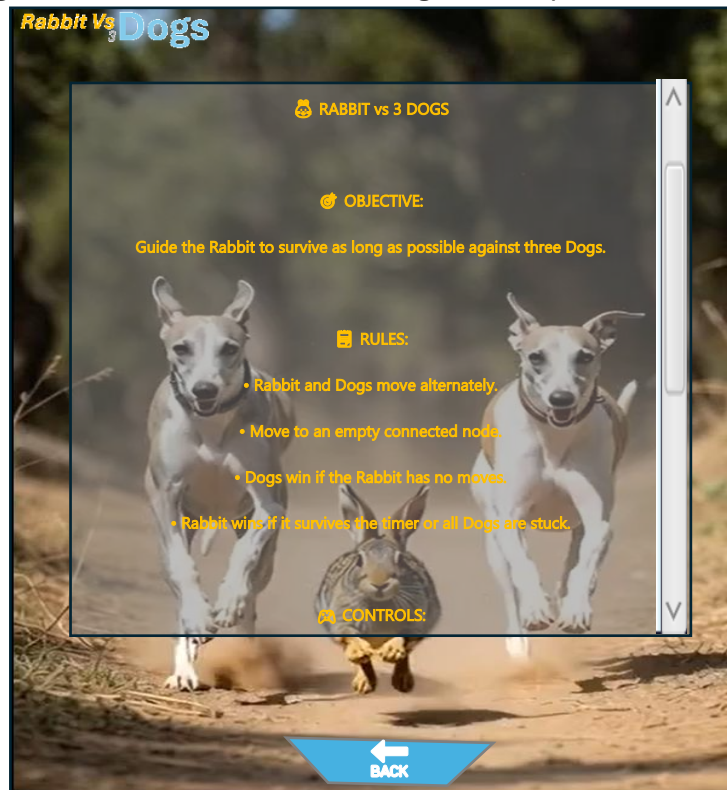

Then you click the dog/ rabbit, possible node where it can go must be highlighted with blue

When you hit pause game: (game must stop)

When you hit rules button

The background is the video called background.mp4

When you hit settings button

The background is the video called background.mp4

